

Biography

Kelly Daniels

Kelly began his career in local government working for the City of St. Albert, Alberta shortly after graduating from university with a B.A. in Recreation Administration. He worked in Fort Saskatchewan and in Grande Prairie, Alberta where he rose to City Manager before moving to Vancouver Island and the Regional District of Nanaimo as the C.A.O. for 12 years.

Kelly was appointed as Chief Administrative Officer for the Capital Regional District in 2005.

Kelly is an avid runner and skier. Kelly has twin daughters who are just as avid about those sports as he is. He and one daughter have run the Vancouver Marathon and he ran the Las Vegas Marathon in December 2006 with his second daughter.

Local governments that Kelly has led are characterized by strong strategic planning and a focus on results within a business planning framework.
