

Biography
Don MacLellan

Don MacLellan is the Assistant City Manager for the City of Moncton and currently has responsibility for Planning, Development and Protective Services. Prior to this, he was responsible for Corporate Policy, Programs and Legislative Services. He has held a variety of other positions with the City since 1991.

Don began acquiring local government experience in 1981 with The City of Calgary, holding a variety of positions within the Engineering Department there. He has also had banking and road construction experience in the private sector. He is married with two adult children.