

Message from Nick Bontis:

Dear CAMA Friends:

It was a pleasure meeting you all in Halifax.

As a follow-up to my presentation, here is a video reminder of my recommended action items:

Also, don't forget to do your Speed Reading Test by going to the "Fun Stuff" section of my website and using the password "123". Be sure to test your friends and family as well.

All of my research papers and articles are available for you to download here and be sure to also check out the website for my new book "Information Bombardment" where you will find more tools, videos, games and Chapter 1 of the book:
