

WAYNE W. BALDWIN

Wayne Baldwin retired in July, 2006 from the City of White Rock after a 27 year career in local government (the last 23 as a Chief Administrative Officer), preceded by 15 years in the Canadian Military.

Wayne's education included a B.Sc (Royal Military College), an M. Eng (University of Toronto), and an MBA (Simon Fraser University). In addition, he is a certified Local Government Leadership Coach.

A CAMA member since 1984, he served as CAMA President for 1990/91, and represented British Columbia and the Yukon as a Board Member for a total of 11 years.

Wayne came to the City of White Rock from the District of North Vancouver in 1983, where he was the Deputy Director of Engineering Services. Prior to joining the District, Wayne served in the Canadian Forces. While serving in the Military Engineering Branch of the Forces, his postings included Esquimalt, B.C.; Penhold, Alberta; Toronto, Ont. and Kingston, Ont. He also served in the Combat Engineer Regiment in Chilliwack, B.C. His last position before leaving the Forces in 1979 was Base Engineer in Chilliwack where he held the rank of Major and was responsible for maintaining all the Canadian Forces installations in mainland B.C.

Wayne lives in South Surrey, B.C. and can be reached at:
Phone : 604 535-0432
e-mail: wbaldwin@shaw.ca