

CECIL E. VINCENT

Recently retired as a Municipal Chief Administrative Officer for 28 years in various municipalities in Ontario and Newfoundland and Labrador. From 2000 to February 2006, Chief Administrative Officer for the City of Cornwall, and from 1994 to 2000, Chief Administrative Officer for the City of Port Colborne. Previous work experience included four years with Provincial Finance Department, Province of Newfoundland as Regional Manager, four years as Senior auditor with the Provincial Auditor Generals Department Province of Newfoundland and four years as auditor with a private CA firm in Newfoundland.

Past President of the Canadian Association of Municipal Managers, past Director of the Ontario Municipal Management Association, Life Member of the Newfoundland and Labrador Municipal Management Association and a fifteen year member of and award winner from the International City Management Association in promoting citizen involvement.