

A new experience for public meetings.

The only thing better than eScribe... is an even better eScribe.

Ditch paper and manual processes.
Save time to focus on what matters.

eScribe's configurable models come together to make holding meetings easy.

Connect clerks, staff, and public officials—all in one place. Seamlessly collaborate with meeting contributors with reporting and workflows.

Bring the town square to citizens' doorsteps to create an accessible, equitable, and inclusive meeting experience.

Encourage public engagement and drive transparency with a range of modules that eliminate traditional barriers to meeting participation.
