

CAMA BOARD REPRESENTATIVE FOR MEMBER-AT-LARGE
(FOR MUNICIPALITIES WITH A POPULATION UNDER 100,000)
2024-2025 NOMINEE

Horacio Galanti
City Manager
City of Airdrie, AB

Horacio Galanti is currently the City Manager for the City of Airdrie, Alberta. He is a Civil Engineer as well as a passionate high-altitude mountain climber, polar explorer and ultra-marathoner.

Originally from Argentina, he has worked in Municipal Government for 22 years and about 7 years in the private sector. He worked in Argentina, Brazil and Canada in various technical and managerial roles.

Throughout his career, he held positions as Director of Public Works & Engineering for the City of Cordoba in Argentina, Bridge Engineer in Brazil, Owner's representative for the British Columbia Ministry of Transportation in Vancouver, Director of Planning & Engineering for the City of Fort St. John and Regional Operations Manager for Focus (WSP) Corporation, Director of Infrastructure, and City Manager for the City of Grande Prairie.

In parallel with a very active Municipal career, Horacio loves climbing big mountains and running all over them. Among many summits in his life, Horacio has climbed the 7 Summits (the highest mountain on each continent), has climbed Mount Everest from the South and North faces, has run a full 42 Km Marathon at the North Pole and completed a 120 km ski traverse to the South Pole, after climbing the tallest peak in Antarctica. In the mountains closer to home, Horacio has finished the 125 km Canadian Death Race Solo in Grande Cache, 5 times, and he is now preparing to run the Ultra-Trail du Mont Blanc in Europe in August 2024.

Horacio is a Professional Civil Engineer (P.Eng) and he is a Director with the Institute of Corporate Directors, holding the ICD.D designation. Always advancing best governance practices, Horacio holds GPC.D credentials as a designated Governance Professional of Canada and he is completing his ESG.D designation at Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. Horacio is an Accredited Board Director with the Chartered Governance Institute of Canada and he is also a Credentialed City Manager, holding the ICMA-CM designation, with the International City Managers Association.

Horacio sits on the Board of Directors of Governance Professionals of Canada, he represents Alberta Municipalities in the Board of Directors of Alberta Data Partnerships and is a Board Member with the APEX Pension Plan in Alberta.

“It will be a great honor to serve at the CAMA Board of Directors with fellow colleagues. With 20+ years in Senior technical and administrative roles in Local Government in Canada and my international work, plus Board of Directors’ governance education and experience, I believe I can make a positive contribution to CAMA, adding value to the Board and advancing CAMA’s agenda for the benefit of all members and our profession.”