

MEMBER-AT-LARGE
CAMA BOARD REPRESENTATIVE
2017-2018 NOMINEE

Gordon MacFarlane
Deputy Chief Administrative Officer
City of Summerside, PEI

Gordon is a graduate of Acadia and Dalhousie University holding degrees in Kinesiology and Law. Through ten years with the City of Summerside, in beautiful Prince Edward Island, Gordon has worn many hats including Director of Human Resources and Legal Affairs, Acting Director of Community Services and Recreation, Acting CAO, and is fortunate to currently serve in the role of Deputy CAO in his hometown.

A regular attendee at the CAMA National Conference, Gordon has benefited from the exceptional networking and learning opportunities that CAMA offers its members and is excited to make a contribution at the Board level representing not just Prince Edward Island, but CAMA members-at-large.

Like many municipal leaders, Gordon volunteers extensively in his hometown. He is the past president of the local Chamber of Commerce, and currently sits on the Board of Directors for Tourism Summerside, the Prince County Hospital Foundation, and the PEI Organ Donor Coalition.

A husband and father of two boys, Gordon enjoys spending time away from City Hall at the rink, on the ballfield, soccer pitch, or basketball court coaching his sons' minor sports teams.
