CAMA Presents Long Service Recognition Awards for 2021

Fredericton, N.B. (May 3, 2021) – Municipal administrators from across Canada are being recognized by the Canadian Association of Municipal Administrator's (CAMA) with the association's 2021 Long Service Recognition Awards.

Letters of congratulations and recognition pins were recently mailed to a total of 79 municipal administrators having completed 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, and 40 years of municipal service by December 31, 2020.

In addition, Chris Fulsher, CAO for the Town of Headingley, MB, Garth Mitchell, CAO, Rural Municipality of Wallace-Woodworth, MB and Harry Riva Cambrin, Municipal Manager of Municipal District of Foothills #31, AB will receive special recognition for their 40 years of service during CAMA's virtual Awards Ceremony to be held on May 11, 2021.

"For more than a decade, CAMA has been pleased to recognize the long service of our members to the field of municipal government administration," said Jake Rudolph, outgoing President of CAMA and Chief Administrative Officer for the City of Nanaimo, BC. "On behalf of our Board of Directors, thank you to all the recipients for their dedication to the politicians and residents they serve."

The breakdown of 2021 Long Services Awards is as follows: Ten Years of Service – 26 awards; Fifteen Years of Service – 22 awards; Twenty Years of Service – 11 awards; Twenty-Five Years of Service – eight awards; Thirty Years of Service – seven awards; Thirty-Five Years of Service – two awards; and, Forty Years of Service – three awards. For a complete list of the recipients, visit the CAMA website.

CAMA's Long Service Recognition Awards program, which was implemented in January 2011, is based on the number of years of full-time, paid employment in a local government in a management capacity, either as a Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) or reporting directly to a CAO.

The Long Service Recognition Awards are granted after ten years of service and are then given in five-year increments.
