

La version française suit l'anglais.

Member Communiqué

CAMA Presents Long Service Recognition Awards for 2019

Quebec, QC (May 28, 2019) – Municipal administrators from across Canada have been recognized by the Canadian Association of Municipal Administrator's (CAMA) with the association's 2019 Long Service Recognition Awards.

The awards for 20, 25, 30, and 35-years of service were presented at a luncheon held as part of CAMA's national conference taking place in Quebec, QC. In total, 27 municipal administrators from across Canada were recognized.

"On behalf of the CAMA board of directors, congratulations to each recipient for their years of service to local government," said Marc Landry, president of CAMA and City Manager for the City of Moncton, ON. "Thank you for your dedication to the field of municipal administration and the politicians and residents you serve."

Letters of congratulations and recognition pins were mailed to a total of 41 municipal administrators having completed 10 and 15 years of municipal service in April 2019.

The breakdown of 2018 Long Services Awards is as follows: Ten Years of Service – 25 awards; Fifteen Years of Service – 16 awards; Twenty Years of Service – six awards; Twenty-Five Years of Service – ten awards; Thirty Years of Service – nine awards; Thirty Five Years of Service – one award; and, Forty Years of Service – one award.

In a special presentation to be made at the CAMA President's Dinner on May 29, Jack Ramsden, Chief Administrative Officer for the Town of Eckville, AB will be recognized for his 40-year career in municipal administration. For a complete list of the recipients, visit the CAMA website (www.camacam.ca).

CAMA's Long Service Recognition Awards program, which was implemented in January 2011, is based on the number of years of full-time, paid employment in a local government in a management capacity, either as a Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) or reporting directly to a CAO.

The Long Service Recognition Awards are granted after ten years of service and are then given in five year increments.

About CAMA:

The Canadian Association of Municipal Administrators (CAMA) is a national, non-profit association open to all Chief Administrative Officers / City Managers and any person employed in a senior management position that reports directly to a CAO. With a membership of over 650 senior municipal employees from all parts of Canada, CAMA collectively represents more than 85% of the nation's population. www.camacam.ca